

Raise your career expectations at Northwell Health

DIETICIAN CAREER PATH

1

Dietitian: Assists in planning, assessing, and implementing patient nutritional care plan. Assists in menu modifications and other nutritional related functions. Requires bachelor's degree or equivalent combination of education and related experience and nutritionist certification, plus specialized certifications as needed.

2

Registered Dietitian: Responsible for nutritional care of patients in assigned units. Plans, assesses, implements and evaluates patient nutritional care plan. Assists in menu modifications and other nutritional related functions. Requires bachelor's degree or equivalent combination of education and related experience. Current registered dietitian certification with the commission on dietetic registration in New York State required, plus specialized certifications as needed.

3

Senior Registered Dietitian: Responsible for the overall nutritional care of patients. Plans, assesses, implements, and evaluates nutritional care plan of patients. Documents nutrition care plans in the patient medical record according to hospital policies and procedures. Requires bachelor's degree or equivalent combination of education and related experience. Current registered dietitian certification with the commission on dietetic registration in New York State required, plus specialized certifications as needed.

4

Lead Registered Dietitian: Leads and guides team members in providing optimal nutritional care and is responsible for overseeing nutrition programs and program development. Requires bachelor's degree or equivalent combination of education and related experience. Current registered dietitian certification with the commission on dietetic registration in New York State required, plus specialized certifications as needed.

5

Lead Registered Dietitian: Leads and guides team members in providing optimal nutritional care and is responsible for overseeing nutrition programs and program development. Requires bachelor's degree or equivalent combination of education and related experience. Current registered dietitian certification with the commission on dietetic registration in New York State required, plus specialized certifications as needed.

6

Supervisor, Nutrition and Dietetics: Supervises the daily operations of the nutrition and dietetics team. Directly supervises a team of registered dietitians. Under the direct leadership of Manager, Nutrition and Dietetics, executes compliance standards, quality metrics and performance. Serves as liaison to health care team on all pertinent patient and nutritional concerns. Requires bachelor's degree or equivalent combination of education and related experience. Current registered dietitian certification with the commission on dietetic registration in New York State required, plus specialized certifications as needed.

7

Manager, Nutrition and Dietetics: Manages, hires, trains, disciplines and evaluates the performance of support team in nutritional aspects of patient care. Serves as liaison to health care team on all pertinent patient and nutritional concerns. Requires bachelor's degree or equivalent combination of education and related experience. Current registered dietitian certification with the commission on dietetic registration in New York State required, plus specialized certifications as needed.

Plus, many additional opportunities to grow in leadership.

CAREER GROWTH OPPORTUNITIES

With positions ranging from dietitian to AVP of nutrition, our team members can take advantage of growing their careers in many different ways. They can also expect to have a career well cared for at Northwell Health.

Become a Health Raiser at NorthwellCareers.com